

Medical Waiver and Release

In consideration of and through my involvement in the IMPACT Spring Training sessions held at Drew University, I (and on behalf of my minor child) acknowledge and agree that I risk bodily injury, including paralysis, dismemberment, and death, as well as loss or damage to property. I knowingly and freely assume all such risks and release, hold harmless and promise not to sue IMPACT Club, Drew University, the staff, officials, agents, and/or employees with respect to any and all such injury, paralysis, dismemberment, and death as well as loss or damage. I certify that the applicant is covered by our family medical insurance program and no one associated with the IMPACT Spring Training sessions nor Drew University will be responsible and will not provide payment of any medical, dental, hospital or laboratory fees due to injury incurred while participating in this clinic. I (and on behalf of my minor child) certify that in the event of injury or illness during my participation at the IMPACT Spring Training sessions at Drew University I am responsible for all costs. In addition, I (and on behalf of my minor child) do hereby grant permission for duly authorized medical treatment by certified professionals to be administered to me (and/or my minor child) in the event of injury or illness during my participation.

INFORMATION

Each practice will be committed to individual player development. We will continue to teach and emphasize basic fundamentals as well as teach elite skills needed to compete at the highest level. Each athlete will get hands on coaching. We will also teach tactical and technical concepts of the game. We will finish most practices with small game play and scrimmages. Each athlete will be grouped according to age and ability.
